1. Welcome –Darla Thomas
2. Review minutes from previous meeting
 - o correction: spelling on Darla Thomas’s name
 - o motion to approve: Stephanie Morgan
 - o second: Camille Jensen
 - o unanimously approved
3. Introduction of RHS SRO Tom Schneider
 - o Officer Schneider discussed his role and philosophy as a school resource officer.
 - o Principal Waite added her support, and is happy with the collaborative report.
 - o Officer Schneider would like to bring the K9 officer and dog to campus periodically to expose the dog to the school and familiarize students with the dog. He asked for feedback from SCC.
4. Fundraising Report
 - o Ms. Mullen went over the report and explained that JSD now contracts with Success Fund to track all fundraisers. Success Fund can also help with fundraisers, including making Venmo available. Totals on the form reflect what has been collected through Success Fund, and do not reflect money collected in other ways.
5. School Land Trust Final Report (2022-23) and proposed upcoming plan (2023-24)
 - o Ms. Waite reviewed data available on USBE and JSD websites.
 - o Ms. Waite reviewed the current year plan, including goals and expenditures.

- Ms. Waite proposed goals for the upcoming plan and asked for approval to add expenditure amounts to the plan.
 - Proposed goals have been streamlined.
 - Focus on increasing ACT scores, improve Tier 1 instruction, RTI, credit recovery, and extension (refer to the proposed plan for more details).

- 6. Counseling Center
 - Amy Trimble reported on dates and events from the counseling center.
 - PCCRs are complete
 - Scheduling for next year is underway.
 - Counselors are beginning to focus on graduation.

- 7. Committee Member Celebrations/Concerns
 - Ms. Thomas pointed the committee to Cook's Center for Human Connection. JSD has partnered with them, and she is wondering how to make parents aware.

- 8. Closing remarks
 - The committee discussed our next meeting which will include voting on the new Land Trust Plan.

- 9. Adjourn
 - move to adjourn: Stephanie Morgan
 - seconded: Amber Woolley
 - all in favor
